UPSTAGE YOUR COMPETITORS

STAGED: a fast-paced series of challenges in which team members take on tasks we've set to earn points and gain kudos from their teammates. With such little time and in full view of everyone, what could possibly go wrong…?

In teams of 5-8 team members take turns coming up on stage to take on the challenges. Against the clock and against each other, you'll be competing against your colleagues.

In 100 seconds bursts you'll be handling the likes of rubber rings, loo roll, boxing gloves, post-its, brushes, words and shoes, to name a few. Inspired by popular TV shows, Staged is an indoor team-building event that challenges teams with a hilarious selection of fun team-building games that will have your group laughing throughout.

The tasks may be individual, but all team members take part to rack up the points.

Are you a good artist? How good is your aim? Good at timing? We'll find out with this madcap activity!

Once the scores are in, we announce the winner and hand a prize to the winning team.

"Brilliant event, so many laughs, well done and thank you"
